ABOUT US

Grey Wolf is an acoustic Americana old-time folk band from the Welsh Marches playing traditional instruments such as banjo, fiddle, guitar, dulcimer, mandolin and double bass alongside fine vocal and harmony singing. They like to mix traditional Americana and old time tunes with a few self-penned songs and their aim is, above all, to entertain. Equally at home in small village halls and much larger venues, the band has headlined the prestigious UK's Old Time American Music and Dance Festivals and has appeared throughout the UK.

"There's an equality to the group's spread of sound, but each player is continually soloing-in-motion, rising up in turn, according to where the ears of the audience might alight at any one moment".

TESTIMONIALS

Diddlebury Village Hall

Gig review

'For those who couldn't make it to this year's first 'Folk@ DVH' night - you really missed a treat!!! Grey Wolf - a much followed band from the Marches, entertained us with wit and repartee as well as with a smorgasbord of beautiful and rousing songs from, amongst other countries - England, Ireland, Scotland and from across the Southern states of the USA. From soul searching and sad ballads, to music that was hard to sit still to, the audience was enraptured. We hope to be having Grey Wolf back again - our audience certainly hope they will be! When tickets come on sale then don't miss out - they'll be selling like hot cakes!'

Rupert Anton

Pudleston Village Hall Chairman

'Uplifting and entertaining, Grey Wolf play with a joie de vivre which is infectious. The quartet combine well-known, foot tapping, classics with original material in a set which is also rich in humour. Their enthusiasm and clear love of the music, not to mention their obvious camaraderie, shines through while their talent on an array of instruments is highly impressive. They had the hall gripped, and smiling, for the full two hours. No wonder they are so popular.'

John Mosedale

Singer/Songwriter

'Brilliant night, thank you very much for that. Greywolf really are a class act and deserve every success.'

An amazing night of Americana acoustic folk music at the Regal Tenbury Wells tonight with Grey Wolf. A band of excellent musicians that work really well together, great vocal harmonies and a multitude of instruments played. Thanks all for a really great night.'
